The railroad bridge is still standing. John Thomas a farmer living two miles east of this place, had 25 acres of wheat washed away and started down the river in a boat with his son to save parts of his fence The boat capsized, throwing both into the water Thomas was drowned but his son succeeded in making his way to some willows where he hung for three hours, when he was rescued

The Herald Denounces the new Trial in the Beecher Case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—The Herald denounces the proposition for a new trial of the Beecher case and characterizes the course of the counsel in reference thereto as a reproduction of the nasty drama which for months has occupied the attention of the country. This whole Tilton business has been a sham from beginning to end Tilton was a plaintiff striving for a sham verdict. He sued for damages which he didn't want to prove the guilt of his wife, whose faults he had condoned to vindicate a reputation which he himself had destroyed and to overthrow an antagonist with whom he had entered into a league and covenant of peace Tilton's position is such that the best service friendship can render is to keep him out of the court room There can be no position more degrading than for a man of so much power to spend months in the presence of a jury asking a vindication at the expense of his wife whose offenses he had pardoned and of the children she had borne him, who bears his name and who share its infamy and shame through their young lives simply to gratify his ambition and revenge

INDIANAPOLIS Aug 5—No very reliable estimate of the aggregate loss to wheat corn and other crops in the State can be made now Some sections put the damage at 50 per cent others much higher and in many places the entire crop is destroyed. The most reliable information shows a loss in the central and southern parts aggregating 50 to 60 per cent of the entire crop. In the low lands on the Wabash river it has been put at $200 000 The corn is wholly destroyed by flood, which at $15 an acre would amount to $30 000,000.

LAFAYETTE, Ind, Aug 5—The loss of crops in this county will be not less than half a million dollars Carroll and Fountain counties a quarter of a million. This is the estimate of the loss to crops by the water overflow, and does not include the damage by wet weather to crops on uplands Some put the damage higher than others

A WOMAN'S PERIL

COLLAPSE OF A BALLOON IN MID AIR—REMARKABLE ESCAPE

The Philadelphia Times says It was noticed by those who watched the course of the three balloons in their departure yesterday afternoon from Promontory Rock that the basket in which Miss Lizzie Hiling was an occupant was oscillated from side to side and many looked with great concern lest an accident would befall the female who had made her first balloon ascension Their fears were more than confirmed by the sudden collapse of the balloon and rapid descent of the basket A reporter of the Times immediately proceeded to the scene of the catastrophe and heard from Miss Hiling her story of the accident

She had risen to a height of about 5 000 feet and was so impressed with the beautiful sight disclosed to view as she glanced at the park and turned her eyes towards the city that she began taking notes and writing down her impressions, when the motion of the balloon suddenly changed Before everything was perfectly quiet and the air ship floated along without any perceptible jar Now the balloon sheered around from its course and appeared to be trying to go in two different directions

She says "I had maintained my presence of mind up to this time and not knowing how to account for this strange event I dropped my note book and pencil and clasped the sides of the basket As it swayed from side to side I felt a giddy sensation but thinking the best course to pursue was to keep quiet I did not pull the exploding rope or the valve rope Almost immediately after I heard a loud noise, and looking up saw the bag had bursted and the gas was going I also noticed that I was descending rapidly Then I got sick and sank to the bottom of the basket and don't remember anything more until I was taken out by a gentleman in an insensible condition at Twenty second and Clearfield streets" The only injury she received was a slight bruise on the face

The Salt Lake Tribune says: "Quite a number of ore buyers are visiting the numerous camps and there is a more active demand for Utah ores than has been known for years

Mountain Meadows Massacre.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Baskin for the Prosecution

BEAVER Aug 5—This morning Baskin for the prosecution, commenced his closing address Reviewing judicial affairs of the past 15 years he said till recently the Mormon probate courts had exercised criminal jurisdiction yet the Mountain Meadow massacre had been let alone all the time until it became necessary for the United States attorney to come here to take charge of the case The Mormons as a community would not punish the criminals the theocracy would not take up the massacre and jurisdiction having been taken from them by the Poland bill we now have under investigation what should have been investigated 18 years ago If the Mormons had investigated affairs as they should have done there would have been no trouble now When the officers of the government take hold the coming developments which must sicken the hearts of the jury who listen There are some honest men in the Mormon church, but we hold the system as accessories before the fact and robbers after Popular clamor has been referred to Why are the eyes of the world upon you? This being a crime against Christianity and humanity the good name of the Territory, the good name of the United States demand an expiation We do not desire merely that Lee be hanged Bishop had said we wanted to convict Lee because he was a Mormon and an old man. This is an insult to the intelligence of the jury Klingen Smith was made the object of their venom and vituperation with the object of breaking down his testimony Even if taken out enough evidence was left for the conviction of Lee The Mormons have control of affairs temporal and spiritual Smith by virtue of his position of bishop, was assigned a conspicuous part in the tragedy In the lengthy defense witnesses for the prosecution said nothing against Smith We may expect a bishop of the Mormon church to be a subdued man carrying in his bosom the tortures of hell a guilty conscience. God so fixed it and Lee could not be otherwise than subdued He ridiculed attempts of the defense to prove lies showing only deviations in minor matters The evidence shows that Haight has been the worst murderer the vilest assassin in the affair except the prisoner at the bar He illustrated that no two men could see a thing alike, and men were not to be discredited on account of deviations. He had no sympathy with Klingen Smith or any one else who participated If they had been true men, genuine Americans, they would have died rather than kill women and children Unfortunately they belonged to a system which robbed them of their manhood The Mormons have so given up their individuality and manhood that when ordered out they dared not disobey No one asked any questions, because the system made them dumb, driven cattle. That man Lee knew no capitulation could be made to the Indians because, like the Mormon, it is part of their religion to murder whites He has a white skin with a heart blacker and more degraded than the Indian's He is a judge of human nature and knew what effect the carrying of a flag of truce would have When the emigrants saw him coming one of their own kind who had been cradled in Christianity what a shout of joy must have went up what tears of gratitude filled the eyes of mothers as they clasped their babes to their breasts and thanked God for deliverance Baskin then gave a vivid picture of the massacre, dwelling extensively upon the treachery of the whites What was the necessity of taking arms from the emigrants if the object of the whites was to save them from the savages? yet, even they had some little humanity left, and the work of destroying the women and children was alloted to the Indians After their arms were given up the massacre was consummated just as agreed upon by the Indians and their white allies of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints I don't hold all Mormons not in the massacre responsible because there are some honest people among them who revolted and would now revolt at such a deed they had been placed under a grievous burden by their leaders and we had a striking illustration of this in Lee's mission, not of mercy but to lead emigrants into ambuscade that they might be slaughtered He ridiculed the assertion of the defense that nothing but the testimony of Smith connected Lee with the massacre citing several instances where Smith's statement was corroborated by other witnesses some for the the defense The position of the Mormons at the massacre was such that had the Indians fired first some of the Mormons must have been hurt, but not a scratch was to be found upon the carcass of one of these craven hearted wretches Baskin spoke of Klingen Smith turning State's evidence saying that on established principles of jurisprudence it was necessary in order to establish the guilt and fix the responsibility where it belonged He referred to the statement of Bishop that if men were put out of the way at Cedar Klingen Smith would know it Baskin said, if so it was as severe an argument against the Mormon Church, and showed that putting out of the way was one of its principles, The point was made that Indians always scalp their victims, and none of the murdered people at Mountain Meadows were scalped Let the Mormons on the jury turn over the subject in their minds and bring up occasions when they have heard such expressions in the pulpits of their church as circumcising below the ears and to go to hell across lots The defense had stated that the Mormon Church is on trial He accepted the proposition Lee is on trial and through him the church parallel to the Dred Scott case Recess

The speech so far is devoted almost entirely to rebuttal of the defense little attention being given to direct support of the prosecution

BEAVER Aug 5—Baskin resumed his argument at 2 38 He said at the time of the massacre we find Brigham Young governor of the territory and superintendent of Indian affairs It would have been an easy matter to have apprehended the assassins if he had felt so disposed He was in supreme authority in the church, and his word was law The emigrants had valuable property and money He should have collected this and placed it in safe keeping for the orphans Instead of this the stock were branded with the church brand and the valuables went God knows where We arraign Brigham Young as being accessory before the fact and the robber of children after it The Prophet of God issued an order the carrying out of which orphaned seventeen children and set them adrift upon the world to subsist by charity If such conduct be the road to heaven I prefer a residence in hell There are honest men in the Mormon church but if they do not yet throw off the shackles the oppressed will at least arise in the majesty of manhood and correct such evils and fanatical influences as led to this butchery There are Mormons on the jury—I don't know how many or what their character—if however one single person ever laid his manhood and individuality upon the endowment house altar we don't expect a verdict The trial will have good results nevertheless it will call the attention of the world to the hideous system and render the recurrence of the crimes which have darkened its history impossible hereafter Alluding to the inquiry of the defense why the prosecution had only brought forward five witnesses when many others were in the country he said the prosecution were only obligated to bring forward sufficient testimony to convince the jury beyond reasonable doubt of the prisoner's guilt and this had been done The defense knew where these witnesses were concealed we didn't Why have they not brought them out? Because they did not wish to add to the already overwhelming array of invincible testimony pointing to Lee's guilt For eighteen years Lee has been on the borders of civilization fleeing from shadows His bedside is haunted by the spectres of women and children who shake their gory locks and frighten him from slumber If the Mormon leaders commit murder in the name of God then under the laws of God they must suffer If the church was not accessory to the massacre not one red handed assassin should have been permitted to remain in it one day after the massacre Yet Lee was not cut off till 1861 and some murderers are in the church yet We admit the death of Joe Smith was the work of assassins who should have been hung as high as Lee and his crowd should have been hung. That does not justify the indiscriminate slaughter of women and children at Mountain Meadows In conclusion Baskin thanked the jury for their patience and urged them to be conscientious upright and fearless in forming their verdict He spoke altogether five and a half hours

When the jury retired, Dame was brought into court The first indictment against him was quashed and on motion of the prosecuting attorney the Whelan case was continued till the September term

BAKER COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

GRANT COUNTY—ITS MINES—POLITICS AND ITS SCENERY—BAKER COUNTY PROSPECTS—POLITICS—MINES, ETC, ETC

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

You once having lived in the good old county of Grant might be pleased to hear of the prospects of a section that rarely appears in print I mean Granite creek and Olive creek mines The former has certainly lost its glory as a placer mining camp but the quartz prospects are exciting considerable attention and the prospects of Messrs Thibado & Co are certainly flattering Your correspondent went from the latter place directly to Robinsonville, the primitive city of the Green Horn mountains, established by the genial T J Robinson of East Portland. It retains but a modicum of its ancient architectural beauty A hotel under the supervision of Mrs Daggett a saloon cared for by Jack the musician a store kept by Tom Gurnee, constitute the means whereby the sojourner is comforted while he remains in this section

ALL THE MINES

Have paid better this season than ever before and the old pioneers Bill and Sam Carpenter Lafayette and Cal Farmer the irrepressible Hi Bronson Jerry Daily Bob Marshall Bev Dix, and a host of others have been made happy this year in the abundant yield of their diggings

The quartz interests too are being looked after by such veterans in the mines as Steve Winters and others of his class New mines are being discovered every day or so, and for twenty years or more the Olive Creek mines will support a host of frugal miners There is no mistake about this

In reference to the question of the day, I

POLITICS,

Grant county stands firmer for the Independents than ever and in the section I have described they are in the majority and speak enthusiastically of the prospects of the good cause

MOUNTAIN SCENERY

In company with Bill Daggett, Lafayette Farmer Jerry Daily and Henry Smith, we made a trip to the almost inaccessible lake known as Steen Lake situated about eleven miles westerly from Robinsonville The lake is in size about one by two miles, and full of the most magnificent trout the world ever saw We caught over 300 Any person who has ever seen the Mount of Olives will be wonderfully struck, with the appearance of the mountains to the west of Steen Lake The resemblance is diminished only in the lack of the same works of art that are on the former and not seen on the latter

There is a striking similarity in some of the names that are used to designate points about the Mount of Olives of old and the "New Mount of Olives," west of Steen lake. Think of the "Mount of Corruption" so named because Solomon defiled it by idolatrous worship, and then of "Lost creek" and Desolation creek," and "Lightning creek," that meander through the mountains of the newly discovered section we have described Whether this section shall yet be made famous in history and have attached to it a future with such names as Jericho, Gethsemane Jerusalem and the historic epochs those names indicate your correspondent opines not. Equally as improbable events have swept over with rapid strides of human history and I have called public attention to this primitive spot that searchers after pleasure and early history may delve deeper in their future roaming in this new territory

Your correspondent was requested by his traveling companions to give these mountains a name and being struck with the similarity above indicated he has given them the name of the "New Mount of Olives" and should the pleasure seeker of Portland desire to be ensconced in the most picturesque mountain scenery of Oregon, I advise him to go there and in his going do not fail to obtain the company of our recent genial, whole-souled and noble traveling companions Daily, Farmer, Smith and Daggett

BAKER COUNTY AND ITS PROSPECTS

Mr Editor the county papers give so much in detail of the events of this county, that it will hardly pay to enumerate in extenso its developments, and when we say that it is marching steadily along on the highway of prosperity it is all said

POLITICALLY

It is hard to say how things are to turn here The old fossil money-bags ring, stealing Democracy, have swallowed up the progressive element recently, and the life and vitality it now exhibits is that of a gormandized snake As to the Republicans, they show less life They have called no county convention and the presumption is that the central committee will select somebody to send their proxies to—some of the managers below The fact is total apathy seems to have seized the Republican element here Defeat with three tickets in the field is inevitable, and they are half inclined to compromise with the

INDEPENDENTS

Who are gaining accessions from their ranks every day And why not? Do not the wicked acts of the administration stink in the nostrils of every true American? Speaking of compromise why not? There is no such radical difference in existence between the honest men of both parties as should divide them on election day All can stand upon the platform of an honest administration of the affairs of government both State and Federal There is no Independent so base that he would not uphold the banner of the republic against any foe. There is none that does not glory in the progress of liberal sentiment as it marches along the political intellectual and scientific horizon of the nation And nearly all of them have contributed their mite in "those days that tried men's souls" upholding the national arm raising up patriotic efforts and strengthening the republic to vindicate its very existence In this respect, the record of the average Independent is equally as bright, as glorious and as unimpeachable as any Republican

I suggest that now is the opportune time to lay aside the personal conflicts and interests and ambitions that have severed the truly patriotic elements of the State and place upon a truly patriotic conservative and progressive platform a man who is not identified with either interest and who will seek to give peace and union of effort, and hope and victory to the two to one party thus generously created This can be done This might to be done in the interest of the people of the State of Oregon and had your correspondent the power IT SHOULD BE DONE to the glory of that better now divided element that should of right govern the destinies of our young ever patriotic and advancing State

But Mr Editor I pause These words were not premeditated I had no hope of dictating or even suggesting to the party leaders when I sat down to pen this letter There is one thing that I can safely predict, however and that is if the sentiment of this letter does not govern the parties named on the evening of election day there will not be a baker's dozen in either of them that will not from the very depths of their hearts regret the opposite course Let the Independents in the true spirit of brotherhood, put up on their ticket a true man, tried in the hour of our nation's greatest peril and in their platform instead of vindictiveness and personal spleen and party acrimony declare in a manly manner the progressive principles of the times and the people of the Wallamet valley and Eastern Oregon will as one man rise up and support that man on that platform

The Republican State convention ought to indorse this kind of patriotic action

LETTER FROM NANAIMO

NANAIMO, B C July 25, 1875

British Columbia has a variety of resources she has plenty of gold and silver coal and timber in great abundance, any quantity of salmon and other choice fish in their season, agricultural and pastoral lands sufficient to provide for millions of a population She wants population to develop these resources Her leading men felt this at the confederation with Canada in 1871, by making the building of the Canadian Pacific Railroad through British Columbia an essential part of the terms of confederation as the grand agent of securing an extensive emigration from the East Wanting such a railroad the people say they might as well be annexed to China as Canada The putting off the building of this road in British Columbia four years has caused general dissatisfaction, and produced a public sentiment not at all flattering to the Dominion government This state of matters is compelling the Mackenzie government of Canada to make a vigorous and thorough survey of the mainland so as to find out the most advantageous route with the view of commencing the building of the road in the spring This is the most favorable view of the case The Dominion government for the purpose of conciliating the strong public sentiment against them in British Columbia proposed some time ago to build a

BRANCH RAILROAD FROM NANAIMO TO VICTORIA,

On Vancouver Island This would no more effect the main object of British Columbia in consenting to the confederation than putting a fifth wheel on a wagon So far as serving the primary object contemplated by the confederation or subserving any important interest in the colony, the Dominion government might as well throw $3 000 000 into the Gulf of Georgia The distribution of that amount of money would give so much employment to a number of men for such a time and cause a temporary demand for supplies during the building of the road, but when built the road would be comparatively useless, the traffic would not pay ½ per cent of the running expenses The outlay would be so much money lost, the working of the line a steady increase to the debt of the Dominion government and not a single practical or permanent object accomplished for British Columbia. The intelligent people of the province want the trunk line built first as their immediate, valuable and permanent necessity, and no tinkering of branch roads that nobody wants and that will do no particular good at present

THE COAL MINES OF NANAIMO

Having two channels to Victoria—the coasting and main channels—would not ship a ton of coal to the latter port by rail, when they can send direct to sea by sailing vessels or steamers No railroad can compete with vessels in carrying coal, and none need try it, unless to discover their mistake and feel the loss in the debit side of the profit and loss account The coal business of Nanaimo is the only interest that could possibly justify the building of a branch railroad from there to Victoria, and it is the special business that does not want a branch railroad. If built, it will be an appropriate monument to the folly of the Dominion government, and the weakness of the provincial government in accepting what will be of little or no practical value, and be a plea for the former government putting off to a distant day what is of vital importance to the province—the immediate construction of the main line through British Columbia.

THE DOUGLAS COAL MINE,

Owned by the Vancouver Coal and Land Co, is located a short distance in the rear of the town of Nanaimo It only requires half a mile of railroad to convey the coal from the mine to the bay, where the vessels are loaded. The coals produced from this mine are specially adapted for gas and are of a superior quality for that purpose The Victoria, Seattle, Salem and Portland gas companies are entirely supplied from this mine, and the San Francisco gas company is largely furnished from the same mine. The company is an English one, well organized, in excellent working order, and admirably managed by Mr Mark Bate and Mr John Bryden. The company is quite successful, pays good dividends and has a reserve fund The production is 150 tons a day with improvements in progress that will double this quantity 145 men are employed, and an average of $13 000 paid monthly in wages. Good miners make from $4 to $5 a day, less competent and inexperienced men make from $2 50 to $3 50, paid at the rate of $1 a ton Outside hands get $2 and $2 50 a day,—Indians and China men $1 25, carpenters $3 to $4 and blacksmiths, $3 to $3 50

THE NEWCASTLE COAL MINE

Is owned by the same company, it is located on Newcastle Island, a mile below Nanaimo and only a few rods from Departure Bay, where vessels of any size can come up and load at all stages of the tide. The coal is well adapted for making steam and domestic use The production at present is 50 tons a day, improvements are in progress that will produce 100 tons in a short time, 60 men are employed, including a few Indians and Chinamen. The company have very extensive and valuable coal fields, of excellent quality for gas, steam and house coal, with ample means to improve and increase production, and with profits sufficient to encourage extensive operations. The principal market for this coal is San Francisco. The company shipped from the Douglas and Newcastle mines 51,697 tons of coal in 1874, and 22,363 tons in six months of this year from January to 30th June. During the same months of 1876 the production and shipments will be twice this quantity, in all probability

THE WELLINGTON COAL MINE.

It is four years since this mine was discovered and opened It is located six miles from Nanaimo and three miles from the shipping point on Departure Bay It is a model of completeness in its organization and working and yet there are constant improvements being made It is a private company, of which Mr Robert Dunsmeier Lieutenant Diggle, Admiral Farquher and Captain Egerton are partners Mr Dunsmeier is the resident partner, and one of the most practical and successful superintendents on the coast He is ably assisted by his son, Alexander, and for the time being by Captain Egerton who looks after the shipping at Departure Bay

The mine at present yields an average of 200 tons a day, and 250 tons when all the miners are at work There will be a new vein opened a new rail laid and the train run by two locomotives in a few months that will double the production There are 200 men employed at present, that are paid about $12 500 a month The company shipped the first six months of this year 22,363 tons of coal and will ship at least 45 000 during the year and probably double that quantity in 1876, if the demand calls for it As the Vancouver Mining and Land Company ship from their Douglas and Newcastle mines about the same quantity of coal as the Wellington mine the total shipments from the three mines this year will be 90 000 tons and probably 180 000 next year. The gas coal at Douglas mine and the steam and house coal from Wellington mine sells from $5 to $5 50 a ton cash, free on board at Nanaimo and Departure bays The fine coal that is commonly unsalable at other mines on the coast in consequence of the expense of transportation and other causes sells here freely and to advantage, at from $2 50 to $3 50 per ton A visit to these mines in the spring when the improvements in progress and in contemplation are completed will be profitably spent time by those interested in the coal business

THE TOWN OF NANAIMO

Is depending for its growth and prosperity on the coal mines The fact of from $25 000 to $50 000 paid monthly in wages from that source alone, with the certainty of a large increase next year is proof of this. There are several good stores, a few superior dwelling houses, and numerous neat cottages in the town. There are a number of churches, excellent schools, and benevolent and literary institutions to meet the wants of the people. The population is 800, consisting of many families of intelligence and refinement, professional gentlemen, and a class of industrious and prosperous people that are a credit to any town or district. The scenery is varied, extensive and grand, and the climate excellent

INFLUENCE OF FORESTS ON CLIMATE.

The question as to the nature and extent of the influence which forests exercise on climate commands the thoughtful attention of many careful observers, and the fact that the controversy is so prolonged proves beyond question that there is much to be said on both sides. Among the more recent papers presented with a view to establishing the affirmative of the argument, viz, that the climate and other physical conditions of our globe are certainly modified by the existence or removal of forests, is that of M J Clavé, in the last number of the Revue des Deux Mondes After repeating with renewed emphasis the well-known points regarding the prevention of evaporation and sudden snow-thaws where the land is wooded, the writer suggests a possible effect which forests may have on producing rain, which is certainly worthy of consideration. Forests are obstacles to atmospheric movements, hence, when rapidly moving air currents come in contact with them, their onward course is checked, and they are forced upward. As a result of this upward movement the layers above are compressed and so compelled to yield up some of their moisture Another interesting fact is noticed with regard to the influence of forests upon hail storms, which is to check them. An instance of this is given, to the effect that, during one of these storms in France, it was observed that when, during its onward course, a forest was encountered the hail was changed to rain, the hail being resumed in the unwooded country beyond.

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1875.

NOT MERE PERSONAL STRIFE.

In general we have no fault to find with the views in the correspondence from Eastern Oregon, which appears this morning over the signature "Compromise." The people of Oregon owe it to themselves to defeat Lafayette Lane, and we like the idea of the Independents considering in their nomination the possibility of securing the votes of straight-out Republicans. The Democracy have already put their candidate into the field, and he is not a candidate whose election can be desired by any Independent. It is impossible for the Republicans alone to elect, and the chances are against the success of the Independent candidate if three tickets are run. At least, so it appears to us. But when the ring Republican candidate is presented, it may appear that the Independents have a fair show for success. It depends, primarily, on the kind of nomination the Independents make, and then upon what the Republicans do.

But when our correspondent refers to the differences among persons of Republican antecedents as merely personal matters, to be laid aside at pleasure, we cannot agree with him. So far from that, most of the personal quarrels have arisen since the division of the Republican party, and many of them originated in that division. Instead of a cause they are an effect of the division, and would die of themselves if the causes of division which lie deeper were removed—or else they would exist simply as individual feuds, signifying nothing to the party. A political movement having no broader foundation than personal difficulties between a few individuals, could never have assumed the proportions of the Independent movement in Oregon, because it could never have enlisted the sympathies or commanded the support of intelligent and patriotic people whose political action is a matter of conscience. The basis of the Independent movement is, retrenchment and economy in public affairs; freedom of the public service from corrupt partisan uses; purity and perfect freedom of the ballot; the subjection of corporations to legal control the same as individuals; the faithful execution of the laws in all sections of the country alike, and the equality of all citizens before the law. It was not to reform the platforms of the existing parties on these subjects, that the Independent movement was inaugurated, for the platforms are generally about right; but it was to see if something could not be done to bring the practices of the country a little nearer to conformity with the declarations in the platforms. The movement has had only local success, electing the officers of some counties, and in every one of these the endeavors of the Independents to reduce public expenditures have been successful beyond their own expectations. In this county for instance, the reduction is over $40,000 a year, and in Washington, Polk and Douglas we are informed the reduction is quite as great in proportion to the former expenditures. The efforts of the Independents in the Legislature, although they had not a majority, resulted in very great reduction of State expenditures. So the movement has done much good. It has done even greater good in its moral effects, in emancipating the public mind from that thralldom to party which enabled corrupt and selfish politicians to use the party lash to force their aids and instruments on the country as officers, thus quartering on the people hordes of political wire-pullers and plunderers. This spirit of independence is now fully aroused, and the sentiment on which it rests is thoroughly established. Though it may not continue to be expressed through the forms of a political party in which it is the central idea, it will not be put down again. Whether there be an independent party or not, the party lash has lost its terrors, and a nomination will henceforth be equivalent to an election, especially in local affairs, only when the nominee is at least apparently suitable for the position for which he is nominated. These are the true independent principles, and they will never be out of place in any political organization.

NOT A GOOD YEAR FOR CONVENTIONS.

This is not a good year for Conventions. In this county the Republican and Democratic Conventions were both thinly attended, the former being a complete fizzle. In Yamhill the Independents made a very weak showing, and the Republican primaries, in some precincts, failed altogether, while in others there were only from three to eight or nine persons present. In Marion county, seven precincts were unrepresented in the Democratic Convention, and some eight or nine in the Republican, and some of them that were represented had held no primaries, but two or three persons had consulted about the matter and given credentials to anybody who would take them. The Independents did a little better in Marion, but their performances could not be considered very enthusiastic. In Clackamas, the Republicans showed some vitality. As to the other parties, we have no definite information. East of the mountains the state of affairs is much the same as down this way. In Baker county the Republicans have called no meetings at all, and Grant is reported ditto, but we are certain as to the latter. The general apathy will be manifest in both the State Conventions yet to be held, even more than it was in the Democratic Convention; and that was really half proxies, with some counties entirely unrepresented and others represented only by delegates named by the County Committees, without consulting the people. The people are going to wait and see who is before them this time.

A LITTLE KINDLY ADVICE.

The Bulletin is still raving frantically at the Telegraph Company for not giving the ring our dispatches, and at the OREGONIAN for having such prosperity as enables it to take the dispatches. We are really sorry to see our neighbor exhibit such an envious disposition. It would be much better for all parties if the Bulletin, like other papers whose business does not enable them to pay for the news, would accept with becoming resignation the place to which its circumstances assign it, instead of keeping itself worked up into a continuous delirium of helpless rage. There are many other papers in the State, in all respects as good as the Bulletin, which do not take the dispatches, the reason for their not doing so being exactly the same as that of the Bulletin, but not one of them is joining in the unseemly and unreasonable clamor of the Bulletin at the OREGONIAN for its enterprise and the thriving state of its business. They might do so with exactly the same propriety. So might the OREGONIAN grow envious and rail at the New York Tribune or Times, or the great papers of Chicago, because their superior position and circulation enabled them to accomplish things beyond the reach of the OREGONIAN; but it would be agreed on all hands that such conduct was as ungenerous and as foolish as it was feeble. So people say of the Bulletin's puerile exhibitions of anger. We care too little for the harsh epithets the Bulletin applies to the OREGONIAN, to feel the least inclination to answer them in kind; and it is with feelings of kindness and not anger that we mention the subject now for the purpose of urging our neighbor to give up this childish nonsense, and go on to build up its fortunes by honest, manly effort, in legitimate ways, remembering that industry, honesty and sobriety, well stuck to, always win in the long run.

A New Orleans dispatch of July 27th says a riot is apprehended at East Feliciana, where the negroes have assumed the offensive, and are collecting and arming through the parish for the supposed purpose of capturing the town of Clarion. Great excitement prevails throughout the parish. A number of whites, armed, are congregated to patrol the town. A bad feeling has existed between the races of that parish for some months.

Superintendent Watkinds informs us that to-day the last of the brick for the capital will be finished at the penitentiary brick yard. The walls of one portion of the building are up and the timbers are ready for roofing, and the walls of the remaining portion will be completed in a short time. The building will be under roof before the fall rains come, unless some unforeseen misfortune should hinder the work.

Miss Laura Jackson, a daughter of the late Judge Jackson, of Washington county, died yesterday forenoon very suddenly. She was as well as usual in the morning. Her brother came into the city, and on arriving received a dispatch saying she was taken suddenly ill, which was followed immediately by another conveying the sad intelligence that she was dead.

We learn from different parts of the valley that spring sown grain, both wheat and oats, is not a heavy crop, the dry, hot weather having affected it. Fall wheat is as fine as ever known.

A man at Hamilton, Canada, has invented a new motor, which he offers as a rival to Keely's. It is operated by the explosion of nine parts of air to one of coal gas.

The Bulletin says "personal organs are never first-class newspapers," thus gracefully withdrawing from the contest for a place among first-class journals.

A census just taken of the city of Dubuque, Iowa, shows the population to be 25,605. In 1870 it was a trifle over 17,000.

INDEPENDENT STATE CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Independent State Central Committee, held at Portland, July 16, 1875, it was resolved that a State Independent Convention be held at Salem on the 10th of August, 1875, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a Candidate for Member of Congress.

The basis of representation adopted is one delegate for every 100 votes cast at the last General Election for T. F. Campbell for Governor, one additional for a fraction of 50 or more, and one delegate at large for each county. Under this apportionment, the several counties are entitled to Delegates in the State Convention, as follows:

Baker	2	Lane	6
Benton	5	Linn	8
Coos	2	Marion	8
Curry	1	Multnomah	7
Columbia	2	Polk	6
Clatsop	1	Tillamook	1
Clackamas	3	Umatilla	5
Douglas	8	Union	2
Grant	3	Wasco	5
Jackson	2	Washington	6
Josephine	1	Yamhill	5
Lake	1

The Committee recommend that the people of the several counties meet either, in Primaries or Mass Meetings, as they may deem best, on the 31st day of July, to select Delegates to the State Convention.

OBITUARY.

Died—At his residence in Washington county, Oregon, July 29, 1875, Anderson Smith, aged 68 years, 5 months, and 25 days.

Anderson Smith was born in Bedford county, Kentucky, December 4, A. D. 1806. Emigrated to Oregon in 1843, and settled on Tualatin Plains, where he lived for 32 years, aiding, by his influence and example, in the development of the country, leading the life of an honest, conscientious, industrious citizen.

In 1866 he was converted and joined the church, since which time he has lived an upright, consistent, Christian life, setting an example worthy of imitation. During his illness, which lasted for six months, he was never heard to murmur or complain. His whole Christian life was one of complete devotion and humble submission to the will of God. He leaves a wife and a large family of grown-up sons and daughters, and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

We shall meet, but we shall miss him,
There will be one vacant chair;
We shall linger for to bless thee,
At the hour of family prayer.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1875.

CITY.

ON TRIAL.—In the State circuit court, yesterday morning, the case of State of Oregon, ex rel., Joseph Gaston, et al., vs. Ben Holladay, et al., was called for trial. The plaintiffs were represented by H. Y. Thompson, Geo. H. Durham and P. C. Sullivan, the defendants by Jos. N. Dolph and Jos. Simon. Defendants moved, by their attorney, to strike out part of the reply, which motion was argued at some length by J. N. Dolph and H. Y. Thompson. Before the conclusion of the argument the court continued further hearing for the present, and directed that the taking of evidence in the case should proceed provisionally. On motion of the attorneys, W. S. Cameron was appointed by the court official reporter in the case. Mr. W. L. Halsey, one of the principal witnesses in the case, being desirous of departing for New York on the outgoing steamer, was examined yesterday afternoon and his testimony all taken in shorthand. The evidence was very voluminous and required several hours. After Mr. Halsey's testimony closed several other witnesses were examined. To-day the case will be continued.

Y. M. C. A.—From the Statesman of the 5th we learn that an organization of the above society was perfected at Salem on the 3d inst. The following are the officers elected: Albert Kinney, president; Dr. C. H. Hall, vice president; Rev. O. Dickson, treasurer; E. D. Crandall, secretary; J. M. Patterson, general secretary. The following persons, one from each of the co-operating churches, were elected to act in connection with the executive officers as a board of management: Congregational Church, F. J. Babcock; Methodist, Prof. L. J. Powell; Baptist, Rev. Sterling Hill; Cumberland Presbyterian, T. B. Allen; Evangelical, Herbert Draper; Christian, Andrew Kelly; Presbyterian, J. M. Martin; Southern Methodist, G. F. McClane. Revs. O. Dickinson, S. Heintzinger and Albert Kinney were appointed a committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws, and will report at a meeting which is to be held at the same place next Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock.

PASSENGER LIST.—The following list of passengers sailed from this port for San Francisco last evening at 7 o'clock, in the O. S. S. Co.'s steamship Oriflamme: W. L. Halsey, E. Brown and wife, Geo. Shepard, wife and sister, R. B. Knapp and wife, W. P. Crump, John Bell, J. W. Carleton, C. H. Meussdorffer and family, Mrs. Hickey and two daughters, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Dr. Egan, John Lally, H. Welper, L. Kline, Mrs. Ames, Levi May, L. Fleischner, W. L. McEwan, Julius Ach and two boys, J. N. Cunningham, wife and daughter, T. L. Beach, A. Beck and wife, F. Thompson, W. I. Gray and brother, F. Smith, wife and two children, Miss Minnie Foster, Miss Bell, Miss C. A. Bell, Mrs C. A. Smith, W. B. Clowe, C. P. Elwert, Wm. Scott, A. C. Gibson, Lewis and Eugene Lacour, J. S. Harrington, and 15 in the steerage.

SALARY RAISED.—At a meeting of the board of managers of the Y. M. C. A., held on the fourth of the present month, it was unanimously resolved to raise the salary of the corresponding secretary, Rev. W. C. Chattin, to $1,200 per year, providing he would devote his entire time to the interests of the association. We understand that Mr. Chattin has signified his intention of so doing and will, after this month, devote the whole of his time to the missionary work of the association. The association was not only wise but fortunate in being able to secure the services of so thorough and energetic a christian worker as Mr. Chattin—one whose heart and soul is in his work and who has the confidence and respect of all classes of the community.

OFF TO THE SEASIDE.—It was a very choice and select company that gathered upon the deck of the Hayward last evening for the purpose of spending a day or so down by the sounding sea. There was quite a delegation down from Albany, including the [illegible] ball club, a number from Salem, and a host of the friends of the Pioneers gathered from this city with the intention of having a good and pleasant time. At a quarter-past 7 the last whistle of the Hayward sounded, and the sharp, clear cry, "All aboard," rang out on the evening air, when, with the enlivening strains of the Northwestern Band, the waving of adieux, the steamer backed out from the wharf, and with the happy throng on board started on her way.

APPLICATION FOR BAIL.—An application for admission to bail was made in the State circuit court yesterday by the counsel for W. H. Baker, who, it will be remembered, shot and killed Leo Stewart, during a row which occurred in the Bank Exchange saloon, last spring. David Brown, proprietor of the Bank Exchange saloon, and A. Carr, of the Cornucopia saloon, are the proposed sureties for the amount of bonds as fixed by the court. Brown was examined as to his qualifications, but Carr was not. If, in the opinion of the court and the district attorney, the sureties are sufficient, the prisoner will be released from custody.

SUICIDE—DISAPPOINTMENT IN LOVE.—A telegram received last evening (Thursday) from Cornelius, gives the sad intelligence that Laura, daughter of the late Hon. Hyer Jackson, died suddenly at the residence of her mother, near Hillsboro. Before her death she told her mother that she had taken poison. An inquest was held, and a post-mortem examination revealed the fact that the girl had destroyed herself by swallowing about two ounces of crushed glass. Disappointment in love is given as the cause of self-destruction. She was twenty-two years of age.

SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.—To-morrow will be a grand gala day for both crack shots and amateurs at the White House track. The sport will commence with a sweepstake, free for all, after which there will be a series of team shooting matches between some of the "way up" shots of this city and vicinity. The trap to be used will be a "cone," with spring attachment, which has been tested and found to work like a charm. This will unquestionably be the "biggest thing" in the way of a shooting match that has ever taken place in the State.

POLICE COURT NOTES.—The general depression seems to have reached the police court and his honor, Judge Adams, has very little upon his hands. Yesterday, two dead beats and drunks were fined $10 and $5, but for want of coin, went below and will enjoy the hospitality of the city for a few days. Up to eleven o'clock last evening but one arrest had been made and that one a poor unfortunate who had been overcome by hot weather and whisky.

ACCIDENT.—A few days ago, while Dr. Giesey and his nephew, Andrew Giesey, were out riding at Aurora, the horses became unmanageable and ran off. In their flight the vehicle was upset and the occupants thrown to the ground, resulting in a few scratches to the doctor and a serious injury to the young man. One of his legs was fractured, though under the care of Dr. Giesey he is getting along finely.

STILL LIVING.—Mr. M. D. Hamlin, who was reported in yesterday's paper as having suddenly fallen dead at Yreka, on Tuesday last, has not as yet shuffled off this mortal coil, but is still on terra-firma, ready and willing to entertain or be entertained by his friends. From a note from Mr. F. H. Lamb, of the W. U. T. Co., we learn that he started for San Francisco on the first of the present month.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland Oregon, August 5, 1875:

	7 A. M.	2 P. M.	9 P. M.
Thermometer	70°	80°	67°
Wind, direction	S.	S.	W.
Wind, velocity	2	6	4
Weather	Smoky.	Smoky.	Smoky.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the trustees of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will be held in the lecture room of the Taylor street M. E. church, at 7 o'clock next Monday evening, Aug. 9, 1875. A full meeting of the board is desired.

BEING PLANKED.—The street and sidewalk mania seems to have been contagious, and has been contracted by the East Portlanders. A portion of the plank roadway, near the foot of L street, on the east side, has been torn up and new lumber substituted.

The evidence was very voluminous and required several hours. After Mr. Halsey's testimony closed several other witnesses were examined. To-day the case will be continued.

Y. M. C. A.—From the Statesman of the 5th we learn that an organization of the above society was perfected at Salem on the 3d inst. The following are the officers elected: Albert Kinney, president; Dr. C. H. Hall, vice president; Rev. O. Dickson, treasurer; E. D. Crandall, secretary; J. M. Patterson, general secretary. The following persons, one from each of the co-operating churches, were elected to act in connection with the executive officers as a board of management: Congregational Church, F. J. Babcock; Methodist, Prof. L. J. Powell; Baptist, Rev. Sterling Hill; Cumberland Presbyterian, T. B. Allen; Evangelical, Herbert Draper; Christian, Andrew Kelly; Presbyterian, J. M. Martin; Southern Methodist, G. F. McClane. Revs. O. Dickinson, S. Heininger and Albert Kinney were appointed a committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws, and will report at a meeting which is to be held at the same place next Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock.

PASSENGER LIST.—The following list of passengers sailed from this port for San Francisco last evening at 7 o'clock, on the O. S. S. Co.'s steamship Oriflamme: W. L. Halsey, E. Brown and wife, Geo. Shepard, wife and sister, R. B. Knapp and wife, W. P. Crump, John Bell, J. W. Carleton, C. H. Meussdorffer and family, Mrs. Hickey and two daughters, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Dr. Egan, John Lully, H. Weiper, L. Kline, Mrs. Ames, Levi May, L. Fleischner, W. L. McEwan, Julius Ach and two boys, J. N. Cunningham, wife and daughter, T. L. Beach, A. Beck and wife, F. Thompson, W. I. Gray and brother, F. Smith, wife and two children, Miss Minnie Foster, Miss Bell, Miss C. A. Bell, Miss C. A. Smith, W. B. Clowe, C. P. Elwert, Wm. Scott, A. C. Gibson, Lewis and Eugene Lacour, J. S. Harrington, and 15 in the steerage.

SALARY RAISED.—At a meeting of the board of managers of the Y. M. C. A., held on the fourth of the present month, it was unanimously resolved to raise the salary of the corresponding secretary, Rev. W. C. Chattin, to $1,200 per year, providing he would devote his entire time to the interests of the association. We understand that Mr. Chattin has signified his intention of so doing and will, after this month, devote the whole of his time to the missionary work of the association. The association was not only wise but fortunate in being able to secure the services of so thorough and energetic a christian worker as Mr. Chattin—one whose heart and soul is in his work and who has the confidence and respect of all classes of the community.

OFF TO THE SEASIDE.—It was a very choice and select company that gathered upon the deck of the Hayward last evening for the purpose of spending a day or so, down by the sounding sea. There was quite a delegation down from Albany, including the base-ball club, a number from Salem, and a host of the friends of the Pioneers gathered from this city with the intention of having a good and pleasant time. At a quarter-past 7 the last whistle of the Hayward sounded, and the sharp, clear cry, "All aboard," rang out on the evening air, when, with the enlivening strains of the Northwestern Band, the waving of adieux, the steamer backed out from the wharf, and with the happy throng on board started on her way.

APPLICATION FOR BAIL.—An application for admission to bail was made in the State circuit court yesterday by the counsel for W. H. Baker, who, it will be remembered, shot and killed Lee Stewart, during a row which occurred in the Bank Exchange saloon, last spring. David Brown, proprietor of the Bank Exchange saloon, and A. Carr, of the Cornucopia saloon, are the proposed sureties for the amount of bonds as fixed by the court. Brown was examined as to his qualifications, but Carr was not. If, in the opinion of the court and the district attorney, the sureties are sufficient, the prisoner will be released from custody.

SUICIDE—DISAPPOINTMENT IN LOVE.—A telegram received last evening (Thursday) from Cornelius, gives the sad intelligence that Laura, daughter of the late Hon. Hyer Jackson, died suddenly at the residence of her mother, near Hillsboro. Before her death she told her mother that she had taken poison. An inquest was held, and a post-mortem examination revealed the fact that the girl had destroyed herself by swallowing about two ounces of crushed glass. Disappointment in love is given as the cause of self-destruction. She was twenty-two years of age.

SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.—To-morrow will be a grand gala day for both crack shots and amateurs at the White House track. The sport will commence with a sweepstake, free for all, after which there will be a series of team shooting matches between some of the "way up" shots of this city and vicinity. The trap to be used will be a "cone," with spring attachment, which has been tested and found to work like a charm. This will unquestionably be the "biggest thing" in the way of a shooting match that has ever taken place in the State.

POLICE COURT NOTES.—The general depression seems to have reached the police court and his honor, Judge Adams, has very little upon his hands. Yesterday, two dead beats and drunks were fined $10 and $5, but for want of coin, went below and will enjoy the hospitality of the city for a few days. Up to eleven o'clock last evening but one arrest had been made and that one a poor unfortunate who had been overcome by hot weather and whisky.

ACCIDENT.—A few days ago, while Dr. Giesey and his nephew, Andrew Giesey, were out riding at Aurora, the horses became unmanageable and ran off. In their flight the vehicle was upset and the occupants thrown to the ground, resulting in a few scratches to the doctor and a serious injury to the young man. One of his legs was fractured, though under the care of Dr. Giesey he is getting along finely.

STILL LIVING.—Mr. M. D. Hamlin, who was reported in yesterday's paper as having suddenly fallen dead at Yreka, on Tuesday last, has not as yet shuffled off this mortal coil, but is still on terra firma, ready and willing to entertain or be entertained by his friends. From a note from Mr. F. H. Lamb, of the W. U. T. Co., we learn that he started for San Francisco on the first of the present month.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, August 5, 1875:

BEING PLANKED.—The street and sidewalk mania seems to have been contagious, and has been contracted by the East Portlanders. A portion of the plank roadway, near the foot of L street, on the east side, has been torn up and new lumber substituted.

SHIPMENT OF TREASURE.—During the month of July the following shipments of treasure have been made to San Francisco by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express: Bullion, $39,025; silver, $2,378; coin, $144,890 60; currency, $17,283 60.

ARRIVED.—We learn from Mr. O'Neill, purser of the Bonita, that the Norwegian bark Electra has arrived in the river, and will probably reach this port to-day. The Electra came from Europe, and was here about two years ago.

FREIGHT.—In addition to bringing a number of passengers from San Francisco on the last trip the steamer Oriflamme brought here a full freight. Her cargo consisted of 520 tons of miscellaneous freight.

SAN FRANCISCO PERSONALS.

A former Portlander, writing from the bay city, under date of July 28th (delayed letter), furnishes the following personal notes:

Henry Christie and John O'Connor, both young men, are here seeking employment. They hail from Portland, of course.

Quite a number of Portlanders are going and coming—some to remain, others disgusted and hankering for a favorable opportunity to get back.

W. O. Bruen, ex-chief engineer P. F. D., who arrived on the steamer Ajax, took some stock on which he pocketed, a few days later, a cool four hundred. He has gone to the Sulphur Springs for his health.

J. Al. Sawtelle, the clever actor who played an engagement at the Oro Fino Theater last fall, is now in Santa Barbara. Elias Lipsis and W. C. Crosbie, formerly with George Waldron's company, at the same theater, are at the Bella Union Theater—the latter filling the position of stage manager. Fanny Morgan Phelps and sister (Lizzie Morgan) are resting at Los Angeles.

Mr. Holder, the tailor, who came here some time ago for the purpose of regaining his health, died several days ago, and was buried at Petaluma. Mr. Holder, as well as his sons, Charles and Joseph, resided in Portland for some time, and were well and favorably known. Miss Emma Holder, daughter of deceased, came here with her father and nursed him through his lingering illness.

DREADFUL GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

THREE CHILDREN KILLED AND FORTY-NINE PERSONS INJURED—A DESCRIPTION OF THE TERRIBLE SCENE BY AN EYE WITNESS.

Some days since we published a telegram of the explosion of coal oil at a test of a chemical fire engine at Newark, Ohio. The Cincinnati Gazette gives the full particulars as follows:

A gentleman connected with the fire department of this city, accustomed to the handling of chemical engines, was an eye witness of the terrible disaster which befell the people of Newark on the evening of July 22d. He gave a representative of the Gazette a graphic account of the preparations for the test, the precautionary measures which the men managing the test on the part of the engine company desired should be made, of the terrible explosion, and the scenes afterward. We give some of the principal points:

The council of Newark, desiring to purchase a chemical engine of the largest size, such as are used in our fire department, invited the different manufacturers throughout the country to a test of their machines. The test was to be very severe, and for this purpose the Newark council had ordered the erection of a rough pine board structure, 20 by 18 feet dimensions, and 25 feet high. This was filled with tar barrels, dry-goods boxes, shavings, straw and other combustibles, which were to be thoroughly saturated with coal oil, the stipulation being that not more than six barrels of this inflammable material were to be used.

In each gable end was to be a hole three feet square, and a smaller one in the roof, to promote draft, and make a rousing fire. These preparations were being made under the superintendence of Thad. Jones, chief of the fire department, representatives of the council, and Charles Hamilton, street commissioner. In a consultation with the managers of the chemical engine (there was but one appeared on the ground for the test), the Newark committee was told to use as much coal oil as they desired, but warned against using any coal oil extracts, such as gasoline or benzine, for fear of explosion. It appears no heed was taken of the warning. Two barrels of gasoline were opened, and men with buckets proceeded to thoroughly saturate the combustibles in the wooden shell with it.

The engine was to be stationed two squares away. The fire was to be lighted at 7 o'clock in the evening, and when it was found to be issuing from the holes in the gables and the roof, a bell was to tap, and the engine start for the fire. The engine was in position, and the work of saturation going on. The two barrels were reduced to a few gallons. The test house being built in the commons, removed some three hundred feet from other buildings, was surrounded by a crowd of boys, men and women, estimated at 3,000 persons or even more. Preparations were nearly completed and the hour of 7 o'clock was approaching. One of the doors of the building had been closed and the other was about to be. The air was filled with the fumes of gasoline, until it was uncomfortable to breathe.

THE EXPLOSION.

At this juncture some unsuspecting person, seated on a fence a hundred feet from the building, struck a match for the purpose of lighting his cigar. That cigar was never lighted, but instantaneously the air became a sheet of flame, and as quick as lightning, had communicated to the fated building. Surcharged with gas, the building exploded with a terrific sound, shivering the timbers to atoms, sending three children to untimely graves, and wounding, some very seriously, forty-nine persons more. Not a vestige of it was left within 100 feet of its original location. Instead of lighting a fire in the debris, not a spark was to be seen. The explosion was so violent that the flames were extinguished of their own force.

AFTER THE EXPLOSION.

The scene after the explosion beggars description. The shrieks and groans of the wounded and dying, the frantic rush of fathers and mothers, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, in mad search for children and relatives, the moans of those burned, were truly appalling. Here lay a child blackened from burning, the skin having peeled from the hands, face and feet. There another, insensible, struck down by a piece of flying timber; others rushing frantically with crisped and blackened faces in search of water to soothe their agony. Hundreds of willing hands rushed to the rescue. The wounded were carried into the nearest houses and tenderly cared for. The citizens turned out almost en masse to minister to their sufferings.

Never before was there such excitement in Newark. Nobody could sleep that night with this awful calamity haunting them; and all night long the tramp of untiring feet bent on errands of mercy, could be heard by the watchers beside the dying and the dead.

FAMINE IN ICELAND.

FOURTEEN THOUSAND PERSONS MADE DESTITUTE BY THE VOLCANIC ERUPTION.

[From the London Times, July 1.]

Mr. Eirikr Magnusson, Sub-Librarian of the University Library, writes to us from Cambridge:

Iceland has this year been visited by a calamity in the shape of a volcano eruption (in character and extent almost identical with that of 1783, which proved the death of 14,000 human beings), the inevitable consequences of which will be famine and destruction of human life on a large scale unless timely aid should be forthcoming. A large number of the most prosperous country districts in the island was laid waste in the course of four hours last Easter Monday, by being covered with scoriaceous sand, pumice and volcanic ashes. The inhabitants have had to fly for life, with their stock, into districts not yet affected, the pastures of which have been charitably placed at their disposal by the respective owners; but, being many times overstocked, they are beginning already to yield only famishing sustenance. In private letters which I have just received from the distressed parts, it is calculated that pastures to the extent of from 2,500 to 3,000 square miles have been destroyed, which supplied the necessary food for 40,000 sheep, 2,000 cattle and 3,000 horses. The spread of the distress into those very districts whose charity is supporting the first sufferers is itself increasing the evil to an alarming extent, so that any aid, to be effectual, must make provision not only for the instant wants of the people, but also for the ensuing winter, as all prospect of a hay harvest (the only harvest known in Iceland) is gone for this year in the immediately affected districts, and is largely impaired in the invaded ones. Food and fodder being immediately required for the starving herds, it is proposed, should this appeal be liberally responded to, as I sincerely hope it will be, to charter a special steamer at the earliest possible date, to convey direct to the country, as a first installment of English charity, such stores as are absolutely necessary at this moment.

The Lord Mayor has most kindly expressed his pleasure to receive subscriptions in aid of this distress, and such as are willing are requested to send their contributions to the Mansion House.

SINGULAR CAUSE OF DEATH.—The St. Albans (Vt.) Messenger records the following singular incident: A valuable cow belonging to Mr. Jewell at the Bay died from the effects of a bite received from a venomous snake recently. The cow wandered off from the pasture and went to some marshy land near the lake, and while eating the grass the snake got into her mouth. In a few minutes the poor beast became frenzied, and ran into the lake but was chased out of the water by several people who witnessed her antics. She ran to the barnyard, and after being there a few minutes she fell dead. Soon after dying, a striped snake, three feet in length, crawled out of her mouth, which proved to have caused her death.

Genuine imported Vichy water and the delicious creme Polar soda water can only be had at Pfunder's German pharmacy, New Theatre block.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

RELIGIOUS, LOCAL, PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

[From the Advocate.]

Milwaukie circuit has certainly done well this conference year, under the charge of Rev. J. Hoberg. There has been an increase in the number of Sunday schools, membership, etc. Every dollar of indebtedness has been paid, whether to churches, Sunday schools, parsonages or pastors.

Early in the conference year, Miss Nellie S. Crosby was appointed by Rev. J. Hoberg of Milwaukie circuit, to be missionary collector for the Fairview appointment near Sandy. Through fidelity to the duties of her office, Miss Nellie succeeded in collecting $40 in coin, which amount will be passed into the treasury of the Missionary society of the M. E. church.

The festival which came off at Zion M. E. church on Thursday evening in behalf of the worthy pastor, Rev. A. B. Smith, was truly pleasant and profitable. Much credit is due the president of the society, Mrs. M. Carr, the vice president, Mrs. M. R. Sikes, and Messrs. Lone and Johnson for their great efficiency in managing the affair throughout. Hon. Mr. Riley made a capital speech, and Miss Lizzie Hamilton gracefully presided at the organ. Receipts of the evening, $63 70.

BATTLE OF HOGS AND CRICKETS.—John Mullinix, of Paradise Valley, who took an active part in resisting the crickets at the time they invaded the valley a week or two ago, gives the following interesting account of the manner in which the farmers in the upper part of the valley met the enemy: When the advance guard of the crickets made their appearance all the hogs within convenient distance were pressed into service and driven to the front. Some four hundred hogs were thus marshalled in battle array, and right bravely did they meet the enemy. For an hour the pigs fought nobly, the long-nosed, gaunt breed devouring crickets at the rate of twenty or more a minute. They then withdrew to water, and after wallowing a short time, renewed the combat voluntarily. In a few days not a vestige of the invading army was to be seen, and the condition of the hogs improved materially. Mr. Mullinix thinks that the hogs destroyed, on an average, a thousand crickets a day each, and if within easy distance of water, a few hundred of them are capable of getting away with any number of crickets as fast as they advance, and protecting the valley from the pests.—Virginia Enterprise, July 21st.

THE FIRST DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—It wasn't Mecklenberg, nor Philadelphia, where independence was first proclaimed, but in a letter from Mrs. John Adams to her husband. When the King issued his proclamation for suppressing rebellion and sedition, after the failure of the mission of Richard Penn, Mrs. Adams wrote to Mr. Adams in Philadelphia: "This intelligence will make a plain path for you, though a dangerous one. I could not join to-day in the petitions of our worthy pastor for a reconciliation between our no longer parent State, but tyrant State, and these Colonies. Let us separate; they are unworthy to be our brethren. Let us renounce them; and instead of supplications, as formerly, for their prosperity and happiness, let us beseech the Almighty to blast their counsels, and to bring to naught all their devices." This was a declaration of independence preceding by months that which Jefferson wrote.

SHOCKING MURDER.

A FATHER THROWS HIS INFANT CHILD FROM A THIRD-STORY WINDOW.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—Last evening a man named Patrick Broderick, sailing under the name of Patrick Harrington, deriving the latter surname from his stepfather, while in a drunken frenzy, threw his infant child out of a third-story window, and instantly killed it. The brutal tragedy was committed under the following circumstances: Broderick lives at No. 504 South Front street, his family occupying the third-story rooms. He is thirty years of age, and his only child, a daughter, was but six months old. As usual with him, he went out last night and spent some hours at a saloon, where his frequent drinking thoroughly intoxicated him before eleven o'clock. From the saloon, where he had spent his money for whisky, he returned to his home, only to arouse his neighbors by his abusive language to his wife. His wife heard him cursing as he came stumbling up the stairs, and got up from bed, where she left the sleeping child.

As soon as Broderick entered the room he struck his wife, heaped maledictions upon her head, and exerted such continued violence that she cried for help, and endeavored to escape from the room, which she at length succeeded in. She left the infant in bed, never in the slightest suspecting that the violence of the father would turn upon his helpless child. The neighbors by this time had gathered about the house, and, by the aid of the bright moonlight, were able to catch a good view of the drunken man, as he appeared at the window. Suddenly the spectators were horrified to see him approach the window with the child in his arms, and before even a thought of intercepting him in his terrible deed, he hurled the little innocent to the pavement below, which it struck, limp and lifeless. A cry of agony went up from the gathering, above which was the mother's shrill note of despair, as she rushed to pick up her murdered child.

A rush of men and women was made into the house, but when they reached the third-floor rooms the murderer was not to be found. Officers Ribbin and Firth, who were among the number, commenced to search for him and found him at last, and brought him back to the scene of his debauch in the early evening. When they approached, he asked but one question, "Is my child dead?" They answered, "Yes," and he hung his head and said nothing more. He was placed in the lock-up of the Second District Station, and will be held in custody until the inquest. The scene about the house after the tragedy was one of intense excitement, and Broderick would have fared terribly if he had fallen into the hands of the infuriated crowd.

DID NOT LIKE HIS LOOKS.—The Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard relates this little story: "A wealthy Easton farmer drove to this city a few days ago to dispose of some produce, and just at night, having nearly completed his business, went into a bakery to purchase a few cakes. A lady was behind the counter, and she eyed him suspiciously, his clothes not giving him the outward appearance of a gentleman. He glanced over the stock and said, pointing to a pile of small cakes, 'Give me two or three dozen of those.' Her reply was, 'We have none to give away.' 'But I want to pay for them,' said he. 'You can't have them,' she replied, evidently afraid that he would seize them and run. He tried to reason with her, and told her he could buy out the whole shop, but appearances were too much against him, and he was compelled to leave without getting the cakes."

UMBRELLA HONESTY.—During the rain Monday a party stepped into Merrills' grocery and asked for the loan of an umbrella. He was promptly accommodated. "You're a pretty obliging man," observed a customer, after the stranger stepped out. "That's a mighty honest fellow," claimed Mr. Merrills. "An honester or more generous man you won't find in a day's travel. He has got a number of umbrellas of me, but he always brings back a better one in return. He changes 'em somehow, but how I don't know, and I don't care. I see he's honest, an' that's all I care about it."—Danbury News.

SCOTLAND AND GREAT BRITAIN.—Scotchman (to English tourist)—"Toot awaa, ma mon, toot awaa; dinna ye boast sae mooch aboot yer a'n country; dinna ye ken that it was only caa'd Breetin till Scotland came t' ye, an' then ye became Great Breetin?—aye, an' ye've remained Great ever since. Ye'd be a puir lot left to yorsels!"—Fun.

For the week under review the volume of business transacted shows a marked increase upon the previous week. The call from the interior has been principally for groceries. The prevailing opinion that an early advance in several of the lines will be established has produced an active call for them. In agricultural implements the week has been characterized by unusual activity in the latest and best improved. The procuring of the latest improved implements has been necessitated owing to the scarcity of hands and the rapid maturing of the crops. The stocks of fall dry goods and boots and shoes are coming to hand. The selections show a most decided improvement upon previous fall selections. The patterns are of the latest and most approved style. The stock of hardware is large and the assortment complete. Prices in this branch have not undergone any changes, although a hardening tendency is perceptible. Cordage is in large supply with a fair trade call ruling. Bags and baggings are in overstock with prices unsettled and difficult to give correctly. Notwithstanding the heavy overstock, the last steamship from San Francisco brought up 47,000 bags. The consumption of bags this season will fall far below the estimate a month ago, owing to the crops not turning out as well as before claimed, so that we will have to carry into next season a larger suplus than was carried into this.

We exported to San Francisco from July 31, 1874, to August 1, 1875, in comparison with a like time in 1873-4, through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, the following treasure:

	1873-4.	1874-5.
Currency	$ 221,735 75	$ 293,819 10
Coin	1,362,795 00	1,635,035 35
Bullion	360,698 65	349,395 10
	$1,965,229 40	$2,278,257 55

The above table shows a loss in bullion exported, but a marked increase in currency and coin. The table does not give a true exhibit of our bullion exports, as a large majority of it goes to San Francisco by way of Kelton and also Yreka.

The Commercial Reporter of this week publishes a statistical review of the harvest season just closed, from which we obtain the following exports from July 31, 1874, to August 1, 1875:

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—For the week under review, the market has exhibited no activity. Many parcels were offering on the market to try it, but no sales have, up to this writing, been reported. Liverpool market quotations, which, at last review were low, are again advancing, and in sympathy, San Francisco and this market are higher. The number of vessels on the way to this port suitable to take away cargoes, is twenty six,—several less than were on the way last year at this time. Our market is quotable at $1 25@1 77½, although for a straight lot of choice shipping, $1 80, it is said, will be paid.

FLOUR—Receipts are light, but equal to the demand. The steamship to Victoria and northern ports will take out about one hundred tons—she leaves Saturday. Several of the mills are not running; cleaning up preparatory to commencing active operations for the coming season. Our market is very firm at quotations which we give as follows: Extra of standard brands $6 ⅌ bbl; outside extra, $5 50 ⅌ bbl; superfine, $4 60a5 ⅌ bbl.

OATS—Crop advices report unfavorable. The yield, as a whole, will not be either so large or of as fine a quality as last year. We note several small lots of new placed at 1¾@2 cents ⅌ ℔, but for a large parcel no offers above $1 60 per cental have been made.

FEED—Scarce and wanted at full rates.

BARLEY—The yield in Walla Walla and Umatilla counties is larger than for any previous season, and we can safely expect to be able to export very considerable more this season than last. Owing to no transactions to note we cannot give market value.

HAY—Receipts large, with prices ruling in buyer's favor. We quote timothy at $10@10 50 loose, and $11@11 50 baled.

POTATOES—Market becoming better supplied and with a finer quality. The home consumption takes all coming in at from ¾ to 1¼ ⅌ ℔.

ONIONS—Report from the growing crop is favorable. Importations from San Francisco continue. Market quotable at from 2@2½c ⅌ ℔.

FRESH FRUIT—Apples, pears and plums are in free receipt, as are also blackberries. Prices continue so unsettled that we are unable to give correctly. The range for apples is 75c@$1 50 ⅌ box; plums and pears are the same. Blackberries are from 6 to 8c ⅌ ℔.

DRIED FRUIT—Dried apples are in demand at from 7½@8c ⅌ ℔. Dried plums are scarce and command 15c ⅌ ℔.

BACON AND HAMS—Market overstocked. Prices rule low and buyers favor at for bacon, 11@12c ⅌ ℔; hams, 11@18c ⅌ ℔; shoulders, 7@8c ⅌ ℔.

LARD—Importation from San Francisco is freer. The market is quiet at from 15 to 17c ⅌ ℔.

EGGS—Prices dropped to 25c per dozen, then recovered and advanced to 30c under an active competition. They are now quoted at 30c per dozen.

BUTTER—Market firmer for best quality in rolls and also in kegs. We quote rolls for fair to choice, 22@25c ⅌ ℔; extra choice, 30@35c, and common, 16@20c. In kegs we quote extra at 22@25c ⅌ ℔ in jobbing lots.

CHICKENS—Under liberal receipts and a light demand the quotations are given lower. We quote old at $3 50@4 per dozen; young, $2 50@3.

BEEF CATTLE—The consumption in this city from July 31, 1874, to August 1, 1875, is given at 4,000 head. Slaughterers' prices are 3½@4c ⅌ ℔ neat and 1¾@2½ on foot.

MUTTON SHEEP—A light demand rules at from $2@2 75 per head.

DRESSED HOGS—Trade dull, at from 5½@6½c ⅌ ℔.

HIDES AND FURS—Hides are in a little better demand, but no recovery in prices is given. Furs are more sought for and better prices given. We quote hides, best selected, 14@15c ⅌ ℔; culls, ⅓ off; green, 6c; elk, 18@20c ⅌ ℔; deer, 18@35c ⅌ ℔ for dried, and 60@75c each green. Mink skins, $1 50 each; otter, $1@5 each; beaver, 75c@$1.

WOOL—Receipts during the week have been large. Owing to the large miscellaneous cargoes offering the steamship cannot take all the wool on the wharf. From the interior advices report about all the growers have sold up to fall clip. Eastern and San Francisco advices note a fair demand for medium grade, but for long, clean, staple, a quick market is had. We quote our market for valley at 21@26c ⅌ ℔; for east of the mountains 19@21c.

A Favorable Notoriety.—The good reputation of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for the relief of Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases, has given them a favorable notoriety.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, than can be made by medical skill. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY & COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, by long and extensive use has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

DISPENSARY

623 Kearny St.,

Corner Commercial Street,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Rheumatism successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and others requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at the pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and the broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage, [illegible] In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON [illegible] made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in [illegible] in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful and make inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of some charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, such should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are laboring under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Mississippi Overflowing.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 6.—The river here is rising steadily at the rate of two inches in 24 hours. The weather is cloudy and threatening. The levees below here, as far down as Friar's Point, are still reported good, the only break being at the cut in the Old Town levee, through which water is pouring, threatening plantations below, from the rear. At St. Francis Almadson the break had risen four feet at midnight last night, and was rising rapidly. Water comes from the Mississippi, at New Madrid, and it creates the fine cotton lands above Helena, on the Arkansas side. Cotton men predict a loss of 30,000 bales of cotton in Memphis district alone, from the present outlook. A letter from the mouth of White river, 215 miles below here, written on the fourth, says it will take a foot more to get one-half of the cotton outside of the levee, one-third of which is now in the water. Behind the levees we can stand three feet without damage. Corn was planted in low places and is now in the water and lost.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 6.—There is no change in the situation since the reports at noon. It is now within seven inches of the spring rise and within nine inches of the point which overflows the entire country on the Arkansas side, back to Madison, a distance of 40 miles.

Railways Recovering After the Storm.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—A St. Louis special says all railroads centering there have made good headway in repairing the breaks occasioned by the late rains, and some have established through connections, though it will be several days before things will be restored to their former condition. The O. & M. route remains closed to through passenger travel. It will be three days before the necessary repairs are made. No Cincinnati mail has been received since Monday. The first regular train on the Vandalia line will leave on time to day, though a transfer will have to be made at the washout between Terre Haute and Indianapolis. The Chicago and Alton is now running through on the main line. Sangamon bridge having been repaired. The washout on the Indianapolis have been repaired and trains will go through to-day as usual. The discontent among travelers is great. Most of them are afraid to travel on the roads just repaired, on account of the soft condition of the road bed.

The Mexican Minister Raises a Question of Privilege.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The Mexican minister has brought suit against Duncan, Sherman & Co., to recover $16,000, gold. He claims that under the comity of nations this money deposited with the firm is not subject to the State law, covering distribution of an insolvent estate. He considers that this gold is protected by the same comity which protects his servants and his other property, by reason of his being a diplomatic representative and accredited to the government of the United States.

Fire.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Storrs & Warren's block, in Leroy, was burned this morning. Loss $40,000.

Sensational Reports of More Failures.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The Evening Post's financial article says Wall street markets are to-day clouded with rumors of a disquieting character. These all seem to emit from the Stock Exchange, and to be accompanied by speculative operations there. In a vague way they say that three or four bankers are in trouble, and one or two stock firms. Taking the way stories are circulated, and all the surroundings, the inference is inevitable that they are simply the work of persons anxious to depress prices. Until absolute announcement of suspension, it will be safe to discredit the stories which may be set afloat that there are to be more failures.

Dr. McGlynn delivered the oration. Dispatches received to-night from the principal cities, east and south, state that the centennial celebration has been observed in a most enthusiastic manner.

S. Morgan & Co., London, or, Drexel, Harges & Co., Paris, prior to Nov. 1, 1875.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—The Times to-morrow will publish a statement obtained from a prisoner named Billy Forrester, who is serving out a term of ten years in the State penitentiary at Joliet for the crime of burglary. The statement is in substance that he (Forrester) is fully cognizant of the facts of the Nathan murder; that though he cannot point out the man who struck the blow, he can name three professional burglars who attempted, with the co-operation and connivance of certain high officials in New York, to rob the safe in the Nathan Mansion, and while making this attempt aroused
